

OLC RECORD COPY /

Office of Legislative Counsel

8 September 1978

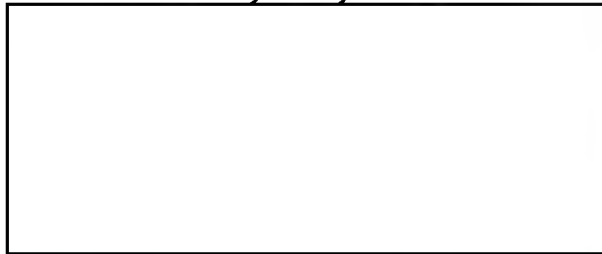

OLC 78-5126/13

Jay:

Sam Hoskinson has come back following his discussion with Brzezinski and indicated that the 16 August requirement will be met by the weekly calendar that we have been sending to Hoskinson for some time, exemplar attached. They did appreciate our calling to their attention the problems of such a directive as relates to intelligence information. In light of the above and the Director's conversation with Brzezinski, I think the matter is closed for now and no further action is needed on the 16 August memo.

MEMORANDUM FOR: SA/DCI

[Redacted]

SUBJECT : NSC Request re Testimony on Hill

1. On Friday, 25 August, the NSC Staff Secretary called to request we provide an advance schedule of who is scheduled to testify on the Hill and on what subject (see Tab A).

2. This appears to be a logical follow-on to a memorandum from Dr. Brzezinski (Tab B) which suggests that testimony on foreign policy related matters may have to be cleared in advance.

3. I discussed both of these requests with [Redacted] Acting Legislative Counsel, on Monday, 28 August. He has them down for action and, in fact, has already been in touch with Sam Hoskinson on the intent and propriety of the Brzezinski memo. He will advise the DCI/DDCI of developments in this matter.

SUBJECT

: Request from NSC Staff

Carol Cleveland/NSC Staff Secretary's office called to relay a "low key" request for a list of those members of the Agency who are testifying on the Hill. This is to be submitted to NSC (Carol Cleveland) (by phone if not too extensive) each Friday to cover the following week. Included should be the person's name and title and a brief sentence or two covering what they are testifying on. In response to my query as to who is requesting this, she replied that it came from Dr. Brzezinski's area.
